So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

ANNOUNCING THE DEATH OF THE HONORABLE EDWARD P. BOLAND

(Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, I have the sad responsibility this evening of reporting to this Chamber that a very distinguished former Member of this institution, Edward P. Boland, died on Sunday evening.

Ed Boland served in this House for 36 years with distinction as a member of the Committee on Appropriations and as a chairman of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. He served in an institution that he revered. He represented the people of western and central Massachusetts with distinction. He was a patriot of the highest order and an individual who loved the notion that politics had meaning in American life.

In addition to that, for all of us that are gathered here tonight, just two quick lessons that have stuck in my mind for a long period of time as one who even served as an intern for him many years ago.

Mr. Speaker, in 36 years, Eddie Boland had one fund-raiser, and he was mad that he had to go to it. In 36 years, Mr. Speaker, Eddie Boland had one press conference when he announced that he was retiring. He would not issue a press release, and when members of the national press over the Boland amendment attempted to secure his favor, he simply said he would report to the hometown paper and to the people back home what he was doing, and that was about the size of it.

This institution mourns his passing. He was a great confidant of Tip O'Neill and of President Kennedy, as well as the Kennedy family, and this institution could not have had an individual who carried its reputation in better form.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. MARKEY), the dean of the Massachusetts delegation.

Mr. MARKEY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Springfield, Mr. Boland's successor in Congress.

Eddie was elected as a State Representative in 1932 when Franklin Delano Roosevelt was elected President, and left in 1988 as George Bush was about to be elected President. He carried the same values throughout all of those years, and he came to be known, for all of those who are still here who served with him, as a legislative giant.

He lived with Tip O'Neill for 24 years as roommates in an apartment here in Washington, for the first 24 years of his career, before Tip brought Millie down when he was elected Speaker; and they said for those 24 years, the only thing that was ever in the refrigerator were cigars and orange juice.

In a lot of ways, with his passing, for Massachusetts politics, passes an era as well, that Tip O'Neill and John McCormick and Eddie Boland span the years in representing.

Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, 50 years without having lost an election, a terrific wife in Mary and four wonderful children, this institution tonight mourns his passing.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES ON S. 1447, AVIATION SECURITY ACT

MOTION TO INSTRUCT CONFEREES OFFERED BY MR. OBERSTAR

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The pending business is the de novo vote on agreeing to the motion to instruct conferees on the Senate bill, S. 1447, offered by the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. OBERSTAR).

The Clerk will designate the motion. The Clerk designated the motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to instruct.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. MARKEY. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, this will be a 5-minute vote.

There was no objection.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 397, noes 0, not voting 35, as follows:
